

Professional Applicator Training

January 16, 2019

Redlands Community College
1300 South Country Club Road, El Reno OK

Pre-Registration $125 Member/$200 Non-Member

After January 4 $175 Member/$250 Non-Member

- 8:30 a.m. Registration
- 9:00 a.m. Oklahoma Department of Agriculture, Food & Forestry Laws & Rules
Ryan will discuss Oklahoma and EPA regulations dealing with pesticides and pesticide applications. He will also cover new and upcoming regulations. Discussion will be held on ODAFF's new online services which will allow applicators and businesses to apply, renew and update information electronically at their convenience.
Ryan Williams, Program Administrator, ODAFF, Oklahoma City OK
- 9:30 a.m. Gramoxone Use and Label Changes
Overview of Gramoxone Herbicide for best performance and label changes
Tony Driver, Agronomic Service Representative, Syngenta Crop Protection, Crawford TX
- 10:00 a.m. Nozzle Selection
The presentation will cover nozzle technologies, selection tools, nozzle wear and calibration to help the sprayer operator improve application practices.
Gary James, Territory Sales Manager, Hypro/Pentair, Wichita KS
- 11:00 a.m. Weed Identification & Herbicide Symptomology
Misha Manuchehri, Small Grain Extension Specialist, Oklahoma State University, Stillwater OK
- 12:00 p.m. LUNCH
- 12:30 p.m. Auxin Herbicide Update for Oklahoma
Presentation will cover any new updates, label requirements, requirements, and uses for the auxin herbicides.
Todd Baughman, Professor of Weed Science, Oklahoma State University, Ardmore OK
- 2:00 p.m. Complaint Handling
Will discuss the various types of complaints and the background information and investigative information needed to determine why the complaint happened. Discuss modern technology uses that can be used to document and a look at the requirements if the complaint involves performance or drift.
Dennis Christie, Regional Agronomist, Winfield United, Yukon OK
- 2:30 p.m. Professionalism in the Workplace
Keith Brownback, Agriculture Business Mgmt Coordinator, Caddo Kiowa Technology Center, Fort Cobb OK
- 3:00 p.m. Personal Protective Equipment
Kevin Shelton, Oklahoma State University, Stillwater OK

*ODAFF CEUs have been applied for,
4.5 CCA CEUs in Pest Management, 1.5 CCA CEUs in Crop Management, 0.5 CCA CEU in Professional Development will be offered*